

Knowledge Sharing Symposium: Subnational Climate Action in Asia-Pacific

A Queensland Climate Week activity organised by Griffith University in partnership with the Department of Environment and Science, Queensland Government

Venue: The Edge & Auditorium, State Library of Queensland, Brisbane

Date: Wednesday 5 June 2019 Time: 8.30 am – 5.00 pm

Aim: To provide insights into the challenges of our shared climate emergency, mitigation pathways, the adaptation imperative, and the critical role of leadership and advance collaborative efforts for climate action.

Time	Topic
8.30 – 9.00	Registration
9.00 – 9.05	Introduction
9.05 – 9.15	Welcome to Country
9.15 – 9.25	Opening remarks
9.25 – 9.35	Overview
9.35 – 11.00	PLENARY 1: Local Knowledge & Traditional Wisdom
	This session highlights the emerging significance of building climate mitigation and adaptation strategies around local knowledge and traditional wisdom
	Keynote Speaker Panel Discussion – Audience Q&A
11.00 – 11.15	Morning Tea
11.15 – 11.25	PLENARY 2: The New Economy
	This session delves into the shifting dynamics on the economy, innovation and climate change, and how sustainable development goals can be achieved in this context Keynote Speaker
11.25 – 12.30	Parallel Sessions with panel discussions
	Session 1 - Innovation & access to technology for a low-carbon economy
	Session 2 - Climate Change & Sustainable Development Goals
12.30 – 1.30	Lunch
1.30 – 1.40	PLENARY 3: Health & Wellbeing of Humans & Ecosystems
	This session unpacks the health and wellbeing of humans and ecosystems in the context of climate change and the need to think bigger and be bolder Keynote Speaker
1.40 – 2.45	Parallel Sessions with panel discussions
	Session 1 - Landscapes & Seascapes
	Session 2 - Health & Wellbeing
2.45 – 3.00	Afternoon Tea
3.00 – 4.40	PLENARY 4: Climate Leadership & Activism
	This session looks at the combined role of climate leadership and activism including non-state actors such as youth activists, sub-national governments and the private sector in driving a positive shift in climate policy Keynote Speaker Panel Discussion – Audience Q&A
	4.40 – 5.00